

MSc Audiology and Speech Sciences Application Printable Checklist:

- Determine eligibility by reading all of the Admissions Requirements for Audiology or Speech-Language Pathology.
- Ensure you meet the prerequisite course requirements by checking our Prerequisite Equivalency Chart. If any of your courses are not listed in this chart, you must provide a complete syllabus for that course as part of your application.
- Create an account (or use existing CWL login for UBC students) for the online application system.
- Obtain and upload unofficial transcripts from all past post-secondary study excluding UBC. If any transcript is not in English, an official translation must be provided. If you are still attending university at the time of your application, please upload your most recent transcript showing your courses in progress.
- Contact three (3) individuals, well in advance, who can provide references for you. Refer to online checklist item #4 for reference guidelines.
- Write a statement of up to 500 words (typewritten, double-spaced) indicating your reasons for wishing to study audiology or speech-language pathology, the aspects of the field that are of particular interest, clinical and/or research questions that you wish to investigate, etc. If you are applying to both the audiology and speech-language pathology programs, you must provide two (2) separate statements of intent.
- Provide a list with the names of the audiologists AND speech-language pathologists whom you have observed in clinical practice and/or met with to discuss the profession. Write this list at the bottom of your letter of intent.
- Include an up-to-date copy of your resumé or curriculum vitae - please ensure dates (month/year) are included.
- If you are a resident of BC, you must include a photocopy of your BC Services Card. If you are a resident of Yukon, Northwest Territories, or Nunavut, include a photocopy of the equivalent of a BC Services Card. If your BC Services Card has expired, you may scan and upload an interim copy.
